

Membership Application Form

The Radha Krishna Mandir & Cultural Center of Georgia is soliciting membership renewal from past members and encouraging those who have never been members to sign up. The ability and privilege to worship at the temple are available to all members in the community, irrespective of whether one is a paid member or not. However, in order to conduct the various religious and cultural activities, education to the members and their children and to pay for building maintenance the temple is dependent entirely on voluntary financial support from its membership. One very important source of funds is your annual membership fee (which may be tax deductible).

The Radha Krishna Mandir & Cultural Center of Georgia welcomes membership from every cross-section of the society. The only expectation from those interested in becoming a member is a respect for the Hindu Philosophy and the Hindu way of life.
